Philenews.com is an Internet domain which carries the most popular news and current affairs websites in Cyprus. It is a comprehensive portal of Cyprus' largest publishing group, Phileleftheros.

The website of Phileleftheros (www.philenews.com) has established itself among the most reliable sites in Cyprus and for many it is the most authoritative.

The new version of the website is now online, with its new, modern design, the new Phileleftheros TV, technological upgrades, new options and above all, interactivity for visitors. Besides the round-the-clock news updates, visitors can "participate" in current affairs with live commentary on every article. They can also raise issues for investigation which will be answered on the webpage and also in the newspaper, Phileleftheros. With more round the clock information on what is happening around the world, Phileleftheros is also available as an app for iPhone and iPad and on Android and for Windows. At the same time, the user can read the digital version of the newspaper from 5 o'clock in the morning. Also available is a portal for classified ads <http://www.philenews.com/angelies> allowing the placement of a classified ad on the internet and in the newspaper online.

Your new, personal travel guide is here! With the new smartAIRdeals service <http://www.philenews.com/el-gr/smartairdeals>, you get your very own private guide who will help you compare lowest prices on airfares. You can find great deals flying from Larnaca and Paphos, and other airports around the world. We believe that travel experience should be affordable to all because travel is for everyone.

We get offers from airline companies and travel booking websites and use them to find the best possible rates. Every six hours, we run a search to get the latest top budget-friendly flights and travel operators offering the lowest fares. In other words, when you see a great offer but you are not ready to grab it, you can always get the next one.

Happy surfing...
