

All your real estate under the same 'roof'

With the support of the biggest media and publishing group in Cyprus, incyprusproperty.com has managed to bring under the same 'roof' tens of thousands of classified ads from the largest real estate agents and developers in Cyprus. The website is updated every day with whatever is newly available for sale or for rent – apartments, houses, plots of land and professional premises

Tool for professionals

Registered real estate agents can register with incyprusproperty.com and create their company profile on the webpage, featuring their contact details and a description of the services offered. They can then choose the monthly subscription that best serves their needs (Bronze, Silver, Gold ή Platinum) depending on the number of properties they want to list and the ads they want featured. incyprusproperty.com also features the rich archive of the magazine 'Synthesis' with features on houses to suit all tastes. Featured on Synthesis' microsite are views and photos of all the room and exteriors of some of the most beautiful houses in Cyprus. In addition, you can also find a large number of articles on property, advice from experts and tips on how to decorate your space.

Contact:

Nicolas Efthymiou
nicolas.efthymiou@phileleftheros.com
Tel: 22744470

Specially for estate agents

All registered estate agents can become members of inCyprusproperty.com and create their own company profile. Estate agents can select the monthly subscription that suits them best (Bronze, Silver, Gold, Platinum). The logo and contact details of each estate agent features next to each property listing so that interested clients can contact the estate agent directly to follow up on their inquiry. There is also be a link to the website of each estate agents, while the logos of estate agents member of the site appear in a prominent position on the home page of inCyprusproperty.

Specially for developers

The same applies to developers who want to become members of inCyprusproperty.com and get their own personal access code to the website, who can select the monthly subscription that suits them best (Silver, Gold, Platinum). The only difference is that developers can present each of their projects in their entirety, with individual and detailed presentations of each type of apartment, home, office or shop in the project they wish to promote. Developers are asked to pay a small fee for each project they wish to promote in the market and can feature all their properties (homes, apartments, offices, shops etc.) which make up each project at no extra charge.

